The Role

DKA is looking to appoint a Senior Architect, with at least three years experience post RIBA Part 3, to join our growing team to lead a sector within the office, and act as project architect on one of the significant commissions within the sector. Current projects include refurbishments of major London art galleries and museums, a new university campus, a couple of office buildings and several new build houses.

The Practice

David Kohn Architects was established in 2007 and has garnered national and international recognition for the quality of its design and has recently won significant education and arts projects. The practice's work ranges from collaboration with artists to public spaces, from historic building renovation to urban strategies. Over the next five years DKA aims to grow organically, continuing to take on larger, more complex projects.
